

Questions for Reflection

1 What have you learned about the medical management of dementia?

2 What concerns do you and the person you are caring for have about the future?

3 How will you access the advice and expertise needed to address your concerns?
